

LUXURY HOTELS

5-STAR HOTEL

LE BURGUNDY PARIS
Poetry by design

Resolutely contemporary and deliciously classic, the recently revamped Le Burgundy Paris is the embodiment of timeless Parisian chic.

FREDERIC BARON-MORIN

A five-star boutique hotel, Le Burgundy Paris has perfected the art of daydreaming: its suites carry names like Vendôme, Royale, Malesherbes and Saint-Honoré, its restaurant is called The Baudelaire and its decor of rare and original objects artfully marries contemporary art with interior design to create a delicately balanced space that simply oozes charm. And on top of all that, it still manages to offer guests a warm and cozy welcome! This place really has personality, rhythm and a soul, which is probably why it feels so uniquely poetic. As you sit and breathe in its spirit, décor and atmosphere, you might even say it's been tailored to meet your deepest desires. This astonishing beauty is only matched by the high level of comfort offered in the 51 rooms and 8 suites. They all have bathrooms designed of light stone and marble offset with chrome fittings.

Like any haven, Le Burgundy Paris is a place to lose track of time, kick back your heels, and soak up your surroundings like an absorbing book. About as far from an "artificial paradise" as you can get, it's the place to come to experience a totally different world or simply to recharge your batteries. It's no coincidence, then, that this luxurious hotel pays tribute to Baudelaire in its Michelin starred restaurant, headed by chef Pierre Rigother. A former colleague of Jacques Maximin and Eric Briffard, Rigother offers a delicate, uplifting cuisine that's rich in ideas, associations and innovative, subtle (and poetic) flavors! During sunny days, a lovely outdoor patio is opened to enjoy the gourmet menu. If you want to take a stroll and stay for a moment in the beautiful Jardin des Tuileries nearby, the Burgundy have imagined an exquisite experience for you: a 100% vegan picnic basket you

© GUILLAUME DE LAUBIER

From the renovated lobby (left page) to the comfortable suites, Le Burgundy Paris is a haven of luxury. Guests can relax in the Spa pool before exploring the inventive cuisine of chef Pierre Rigotherier on the patio of the Baudelaire restaurant, or enjoy one of the new cocktails at the bar.

© GUILLAUME DE LAUBIER

Appartement Suite.

© CRISTIAN DIAMON

can order at the hotel or ask for delivery anywhere in Paris. The Baudelaire Bar, as you might expect, is a cozy boudoir where a new range of cocktails creations such as "Africa trek", "Margari-thai", "L'Aztèque" and "Copacachaca" pay tribute to tropical destinations around the world.

Relax and unwind at the luxuriously 250 sq.m spa which has recently teamed up with Sothys. Take a dip in the swimming pool designed in soft turquoise hues or for a sensorial escapade, take advantage of the Detox menu which combines an energizing facial care or reflexology massage to a healthy lunch menu. At Le Burgundy Paris, there's a chance you'll discover your inner peace which is undoubtedly the essence of the hotel's philosophy. ■

■ Le Burgundy Paris. 6-8, rue Duphot, Paris 1st.
Tel. + 33 (0)1 42 60 34 12. www.leburgundy.com

The Jardin des Tuileries is the closest spot to enjoy your 100% vegan picnic hamper created by chef Pierre Rigotherier. You can either take the basket with you or have it delivered.

© LINE BRUNSON